Alexis Martinez favored for Tournament Champion Repeat @ RMN Collegiate Open

Shout Out and Kudos!

The National Collegiate Wrestling Organization would like to thank Rocky Mountain National Events for their support in the return of a National Open on the west coast. This tournament will act as the return of the US Collegiate Open. The open division is a true open, and is open to all. Also, we would like to give kudos to last year's 141 pound champion, Beau Beavers, who has made the 2023-2024 starting line-up for the University of Sioux Falls with over six wins under his belt this year. Congratulations!

Terminator World Championships

NCWO predicts that Alexis Martinez, an Arizona wrestler, will repeat his reign as the Tournament Champion in the RMN Open Division 174 pound weight class. He is an AZ local high school graduate from Cesar Chavez High School, who has aspired to his Collegiate All-American Status, and continues to pursue his dreams on and off the mat. Some accolades that Martinez has accomplished thus far are: former National Collegiate Wrestling Association All-American, Tournament Champion in the California Community College Association System, Collegiate Conference Champion, Terminator Rocky Mountain National All-American Champion, and various victories in the mma cage. One memory that stands out is when Martinez was a college freshman he pulled off an upset by beating a nationally ranked upperclassman in the NAIA Collegiate Division, and after that day he never stopped getting better. As he pursues his Master's Degree, Martinez plans on taking first place again at the Terminator Rocky Mountain National Open Division. He claims that this tournament and others that are similar in caliber keeps him sharp and on his toes. He is ready and he mentioned that the tougher the competition, the sweeter the victory. The challenge remains.

If you would like to register to compete in the Open on March 1st & 2nd at the AZ Athletic Grounds in Mesa, AZ go to RMN Events | TERMINATOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS (rmnevents.com). Mesa, AZ has an airport which is five minutes from the venue and hotels. The Mesa Gateway Airport has Allegiant Airline flights which are primarily at that port. Also, the Phx Sky Harbor International Airport is less than 30 minutes away. Finally, a great fundraiser and resiliency program are available on that link. ## Unattached Collegiate Wrestler Beau Beavers favored to win the 141lbs. Weight Class @ RMN

Shout Out and Kudos!

The National Collegiate Wrestling Organization would like to thank Rocky Mountain National Events and Legacy Sports for their support in the return of a National Open on the west coast. This tournament will act as the return of the US Collegiate Open. The open division is a true open, and is open to all. We are happy to report that branches of the military have confirmed and will be competing. There is great energy, and this will be a great experience.

Terminator World Championship

NCWO predicts that Beau Beavers from South Dakota is the favored Champion at 141 lbs. in the 2023 Rocky Mountain National Collegiate Open Division. Beau Beavers is a sophomore at Grand Canyon University, and as a freshman he surprised college coaches and wrestlers with his strength and ability. Last season with victories over AZ Christian University and Life Pacific University leading up to him being the Tournament Champion at the Vegas Collegiate Invitational, and earning Consolation Champion at the California Collegiate Open, has positioned him well for next steps. Beaver has carried that momentum to the new year with a couple of more individual wins including over Adam State, which really shows that his future is a promising one. His performance has brought him national attention, and is currently being picked up by a D2 University. His dedication on and off the mat are evident as he will earn academic honors this year.

If you would like to register to compete in the Open on March 3rd & 4th at Legacy Sports Center in Mesa, AZ go to RMN Events | TERMINATOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS (rmnevents.com).
